Harry M. Coudrey for Congress. Election November 8, 1904

MR. HARRY M. COUDREY.

Republican Candidate for Congress,
Twelfth District.

Harry was born at Brunswick, Maine, January 28, 1867. He moved to St. Louis in 1878, where he attended the common schools, and graduated from the Central Training School. Soon after he entered the fire insurance business and rose rapidly to the front in the profession. He is now the leading member of the insurance firm of Harry Coudrey & Co., with offices in the Commercial building.

From 1897 to 1899 Mr. Coudrey was a member of the municipal assembly, and won the commendation of the public by his vigorous opposition to all boodle measures.

Mr. Coudrey is well connected in the business world. He is a member of the Merchants' exchange, the Business Men's league, a director in the Commonwealth Trust Co., a member of the Loyal Legion, St. Louis University club and the St. Louis Jockey club. He has also taken more or less interest in politics, and at one time was president of the Twenty-eighth Ward Republican League club.

MR. AUGUST GISLER.

August Gisler, republican nominee for the legislature in the Third district, is well and favorably known in St. Louis, having lived in the Fourth ward for more than 30 years. He has been an active hard-working breadwinner and a member of the Fourth district congressional committee, representing the Fourteenth ward for the past eight years. He is known to the loyal support of all his constituents.

REV. W. D. COOK.

Has Come to His Post of Duty in St. Paul's Chapel.

Rev. W. D. Cook, of Jersey City, N. J., arrived in St. Louis a few days ago in charge of St. Paul's chapel. We expect that he will be equal to the occasion. We shall do as we have in the past—be a strong supporter of the church and the minister in charge.

SAN ANTONIO & ARANSAS PASS RAILWAY COMPANY

—One of the Best Lines South.

We are confident that many of our people are looking for permanent homes, and we would suggest that they look to the great state of Texas, in order to make a personal investigation of the wonderful possibilities of the Lone Star state, Texas, particularly the territory traversed by the San Antonio & Aransas Pass railway, which owns and operates 723 miles of road, as follows:

Main Line—San Antonio to Houston.
Waco Division—Waco to Yoakum.
Lockhart Division—Lockhart to Shiner.
Kerrville Branch—San Antonio to Kerrville.
Corpus Christi Branch—Corpus Christi to Kenedy.
Rockport Branch—Rockport to Gregory.

Allice and Falfurrias Branch—Skidmore to Allice and Falfurrias.

By reference to the map you will see that they run through the finest and earliest truck-producing section in the southwest.

The climate is so that the farmers raise and sell something every month in the year; in fact, it is known as the "open winter" farming country of the southwest, where a man can work out in the open air every day, and does not have to spend all he makes in the summer to keep him through the winter. It is understood that the low rate Homeseekers' tickets will continue to be on sale during November and December to all San Antonio & Aransas Pass points, of which the following are the most prominent local stations:

Falfurrias, Corpus Christi, Allice, Beeville, Skidmore, Runge, Cuero, Yorktown, Hallettsville, Rock Island, Yoakum, Giddings, Cameron, Luling, Rockport, Kenedy, Karnes City, Floresville, Rockdale, Gonzales.

You can pack up Sallie and the babies and go south, and they will show you all of these fertilized fields, where you can enjoy life. It is a sad mistake when our people crowd into a large city. You can do better by taking up your home in Texas. We will continue this appeal for the benefit and welfare of the Negroes.

A CHICAGO BELLE.

Miss Madge Washington, of Chicago, is Having a Good Time.

Miss Washington, of Chicago, Ill., came to spend a short visit with her cousins of St. Louis, and left for Wells-ville, Mo., where she will spend a few weeks with her grandmother. She will return on the fifth day of November to her cousin's home, 3030 Hickory street. There she will remain until she makes her departure for Chicago. She has been quite pleased with our city and well entertained. A grand reception was given in her honor by the Magnolia club girls. Also a farewell party given for her by her cousins, Misses May and Irene Robinson. We will be pleased to welcome her back to St. Louis before she returns to her home in the Windy City, and we shall endeavor to make it more pleasant for her than before.

Vote For

P. H. Clark for sheriff. He is all right. The Irish World that is published in New York is doing a great work. So we should support Pat H. Clark for sheriff, as their leading Irish paper in this country now stand up for our president, Theodore Roosevelt.

Sam, The Tailor.

At 204 North Fourteenth street is the establishment of Sam, the tailor. His business has become so that he has been compelled to enlarge his place. He now has 204 and 206, all complete and arranged in the most complete manner. Such is the business of any man that gives his customers satisfaction. Mr. Sam is what we call one of nature's gentlemen, and that has caused his success. Go and see, and get your suits for the winter.

Is Still a Republican.

We received a letter from John G. Jones, of Chicago, Ill., stating that he is still a republican.

We never doubted that. If you want full particulars printed, send along something to pay the printer.

The Frisco System will carry one hundred thousand Negroes to the World's Fair.

A NOTABLE FUNCTION.

Chicagoan Royally Entertained by the St. Louisians.

One of the most pleasing visitors to our city lately has been Mrs. M. V. Deatherage, of Chicago, who has been the guest of Miss M. E. McLeod, of 2642 Shenandoah avenue. She has also been the guest of honor at a number of social functions. Among the most notable was an "at home" on the 13th inst., given by Miss McLeod, which was unique for its many novelties. About thirty ladies were present and enjoyed themselves very much. Miss Virginia Mordica's card party was another most delightful affair.

But it remained for our highly esteemed citizen, Col. Daniel McLeod, to cap the climax with a musical in honor of Mrs. Deatherage on the 20th inst., which for brilliancy and beauty has never been surpassed in our city. The parlors were handsomely decorated with roses, carnations and smilax. The guests represented the beauty and intelligence of the World's fair city of 1904. The programme beggars description. It was replete with gems, musical and literary, and every number rendered would have done credit to professionals. Mrs. Deatherage's readings were the best we have heard in a long time, and it was difficult to believe we were not in the presence of a Charlotte Cushman or a Mary Anderson. Our own Prof. Esner was, as always, inimitable. As an organized talker he is without a peer. Mr. James W. Grant gave a song from the "Sultan of Sulu," in his usual happy manner, that was most enthusiastically received. Miss Burnice Darkis' piano solo was beautifully rendered. Mr. William A. Wilkerson's cornet solo was another delight to the audience, also the fine baritone solo by Mr. Lorenzo Harris. Mr. James H. Harris, the violinist gave a solo, "Facts and Fiction," by Wisert, which was perfection. The audience was entranced and for an encore he gave "Mazurka de Concert" by Musini, which charmed and captivated everyone and for brilliancy of execution was hard to surpass.

Among those present were: Rev. C. M. Mason, Prof. Peter H. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Curtis, Dr. J. P. Curtis, Dr. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Langston, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gossin, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Usher, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bordeaux, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Clamorgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Estill, Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, Mesdames Lyons, Wilkinson, Blair, Armstrong, Anderson, Gibson, Holmes, Arnett, Misses Mason, Grant, Burrell, Mordica, Murphy, Brown, York.

LINCOLN INSTITUTE NOTES.

The third annual farmers' convention will be held at Lincoln Institute, Friday, November 4. Not one of the many innovations for good introduced during the administration of Dr. B. F. Allen can become of more practical value to the Negroes of the state of Missouri, and the surrounding section, than such a convention, provided that the thinking men and women of various communities will take hold of the matter and by their presence and influence, added to words and deeds of encouragement, will aid a movement that, in the present state of the Negro, financially and otherwise considered, can be of so much material use to him. In a section which commands the rich agricultural lands of the great middle west, of the southwest, and of the northwest.

Public lands are rapidly opening, the number of acres of available land proportionately is decreasing, and if the Negro fails to be land-wise in his day and generation he will eventually awake to find himself, not only disfranchised, but also, minus that other strong right arm of law and liberty—the ownership of land.

Possessed of land and of knowledge of improved methods of irrigation, cultivation, rotation of crops, poultry-raising, dairying, fruit culture, bee-culture, etc., he may be able to hold his own in a country where high handed competition is the order of the day; otherwise (unless he develops much more satisfactorily along other lines of industrial and professional work) he must be content to be pushed closer and closer to the wall, the unhappy victim of his own short sightedness.

During the third annual farmers' convention held in connection with Lincoln institute, many important phases of the industrial problem as influenced by agriculture, and as affecting the best interests of the Negro, will be discussed; and it is hoped that the practical results will be numerous and wide-spread.

Come one, come all, November 4.
